

Winter Camp Rules

(Borrowed and Adapted From Summer Camp)

General Rules:

- All campers are required to attend all worship services and Bible classes unless excused by the Camp Nurse.
- All campers will respect the property of all other campers and staff members.
- No foul language, dirty jokes or inappropriate comments will be tolerated. *No drugs, alcohol or tobacco will be allowed within the camp. All campers will be expected to show respect to all staff and any visitors.
- *A nightly curfew of 11:00pm to 6:30am will be strictly enforced and all campers are to remain in their cabins during this time.
- *Campers will not be allowed to leave the camp area at anytime unless accompanied by an adult staff member and approved by a Camp Director.
- All prescription and non-prescription medication must be turned into the Camp Nurse immediately upon arrival at camp. The nurse will administer the required dosage.
- Campers are discouraged from having money in their cabins. The camp is not responsible for money or valuables kept in the cabins and losses thereof.
- *The girls are not to go in or around the boys cabins. *The boys are not allowed to go in or around the girls cabins.

What Not to Bring to Camp:

- *Knives or weapons of any kind. No firecrackers, fireworks or sparklers or any kind. No electronics, tablets etc. No Drugs, Any Tobacco Products, Vape Pens, Alcohol or Inappropriate Pictures of Any Kind
- For the most part No Cell Phones are to be Used During Camp - If campers need to use a cell phone to call home before bed No texting or phone calls permitted between campers while at camp. Phones must be turned off and in cabin during all other times unless being used as a Bible or note taking for class. Staff are not to use cell phones in the presence of campers. It is highly recommended that phones be left home. No Computers - Staff may use computers for class preparation and other pertinent needs.
- Skateboards, scooters, bikes or skates are not allowed on camp property during camp. Paintballs, Paintball Guns, or Airsoft guns should not be brought as well. Don't bring anything that will mess up the camp.

What To Bring to Camp:

- WARM CLOTHES....IT GETS COLD
- Bible, notebook and pen or pencils.
- Sleeping bag or warm bedding with pillows.
- Enough clothes, toiletries, and towels, for the week.
- We recommend labeling clothes with camper's name.
- (Optional) Accessories for individual talent skits and participation in campfire programs.

Camp Dress Code:

- Clothing should not have anything written on it that is not in keeping with Christian standards.
- Clothing should not be immodest (i.e., not too tight or too revealing, etc.) (If you have a question about your attire, ask your Cabin Leader).
- No bare midriffs or low-cut tops. No tank-tops. (If you have a question about your attire, ask your Cabin Leader).
  - (When in doubt, wear hoodie...its winter camp, don't worry it is cold so you will want to cover up anyway).
- Shoes must be worn at all times....we don't want you losing a toe to frost bite :)

Camper Relationships

- PDA (Public displays of Affection) between boy and girl campers will be limited to hand holding only. To prevent camp drama, it is best to only pursue relationships with your fellow campers after camp, and just work on making friends while at camp. Any relationships that do not represent Biblical morality, or any unwanted attention or affection that makes another feel uncomfortable is prohibited at camp.

Disciplinary Actions:

- We try to keep a positive fun environment at camp. If an individual is not willing to help the camp be a success, we will dismiss them with parent or guardian responsible for transportation.
